KNOWLES CHARGES SURVIVAL OF THE BEAR

Joseph Knowles, in a dress suit, minus bear skin, minus deer skin pants, minus moccasins, minus bow and arrow, minus fire stick, and minus even his primitive beard, told another of those bear pit stories at Tremont Temple last night and an appreciative audience applauded him to the echo.

All the primitive accessories appeared in two rows of moving pictures, which followed the lecture proper, with Joe Knowles the central figure in each one, and reporters and snapshot men in primitive conveyance hauled submissively in the background.

Tremont Temple, the speaker said, holds about 2,700 people. The management stated that there were 300 people present.

Knowles is a stocky man. His movements are slow and powerful. He is slightly gray, with furrows across his nose. His cheeks have a high color.

New Bear Killings.
First there were moving pictures of white-magazine and newspaper articles dealing with President-Electors Eliot of Harvard, and with the training of children. Finally, at 8:30, the organs peeled back, and Knowles appeared.

He carried a roll of paper in his hand. The audience held it might contain his bear pit—or at least the bear skin. But it was not unrolled throughout the lecture. His new young bear was also present.

As a preliminary, Knowles asked Bert Ford, the AMERICAN reporter whose articles in the Sunday AMERICAN are driving the "real facts about the Dr. of the Maine woods" to come on the platform. Mr. Ford's position in reply to Knowles' challenge for a public debate, was given by yesterday's AMERICAN, in the following invitation to Mr. Knowles:

KNOWLES MUST INSIST UPON A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION.

To Mr. Joseph Knowles:
You are entitled to, and should demand, AS OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION—that the actual truth may be known about your experiment in the Maine woods. You should demand an investigation by a representative scientific body, before whom all the facts could be laid, witnesses permitted to testify, and the actual truth made known. Or, if you prefer, your investigation can be made IN A COURT OF LAW.

The men who have questioned your statements are respectable. The reporter, Bert Ford, is RESPONSIBLE. He will defend his statements.

Dollars For Laid-Aside Household Articles

Don't think because you no longer find use for certain belongings of yours that they're no longer of value. That's an extravagant idea.

Every serviceable article that your household has outgrown represents so much tied-up money. And this is the time, with Christmas close at hand, that such money should be spendable.

• Doubtless your Christmas spending money problem could be speedily solved by a visit to your store room this very day. You can quickly prepare for release for your pleasure and profit a pent-up source of revenue.

Take pencil and paper and list every article which is useful to someone else. Clothes, housefurnishings, everything, include the smallest worn-out article.

Then attach your address to the list and you have a "Want Ad" which will bring buyers in hurry-up time. As soon as the ad is ready have it with any of the American's "Want Ad" Stations, the Branch Office at 264 Washington Street, Main Office 50 Summer Street, or

ONE DEAD, ONE DYING

M. VETRAZZINI, whose "chicken" nigrette" fooled the U. S. Customs men at New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Mons. Vetrizzini, the opera singer, today played a "foxy" trick on the customs officers. His last wife, dressed with white gloves, appeared to be carrying a package. He carried a roll of paper in his hand.

'L' OFFICIALS ACCUSED OF 'ROBBING' MEN

Officials of the Boston Elevated were today accused of being responsible for a "scheme of robbing and extortion" in putting into effect the graduated wage scale for the city's employees. This charge was made by Organizer Fred Fay of the carmen's union, in the final arguments before the "L" arbitration board.

The grievance which organized this strike was that a man who breaks into a bank and deliberately robs the safe. This graduated wage scale was put together for the sole purpose of making money for the company.

Under the operations, systematically and scientifically, the conductors and motormen are robbed, their families, wives and children are made to suffer.

Even at its best this system is a scheme to rob the taxpayer and to keep the carmen under the guise of philanthropy that it is supposed to give the older men, benefits they never receive.

Then attach your address to the list and you have a "Want Ad" which will bring buyers in hurry-up time. As soon as the ad is ready have it with any of the American's "Want Ad" Stations, the Branch Office at 264 Washington Street, Main Office 50 Summer Street, or

O'Meara Abolishes Famous Fakirs' Row

"Fakirs' Row" has been abolished. Police Commissioner O'Meara today issued an order forbidding the "flow" in this city. The name applied to the line of ten vendors on Tremont street, between the Park Street Church and the Tremont Building. A week before Christmas, at 7 o'clock in the morning, the vendors used to line up in the streets across the way. At a signal from the police there was a rush for places along the curbstone.

TAMPICO BATTLE IS STILL RAGING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Terrific fighting continues at Tampico, according to wireless dispatches from Rear Admiral Fletcher, received at the Navy Department today.

Admiral Fletcher reported no change in the relative position of the combatants. He made no mention of the reported capture of Tampico by the rebels.

The situation at Tampico has changed since the British refused to allow a British ship to land on the coast of the United States.

Five American ships (destroyers) would refuse to enter the water, which is guarded by the guns of the fortress.

The Federal government has ordered the Constitutionalist position all day yesterday. Admiral Fletcher reported, however, that the rebels, under General Villa, would refuse to enter the water, which is guarded by the guns of the fortress.

No American or other foreign ships have been injured, and no neutral property has been captured by "rebels."

FR. FITZPATRICK OF DORCHESTER DIES IN SLEEP

The Rev. Father William H. Fitzpatrick, the oldest priest in the Dorchester district and maybe in Boston archdiocese, was found dead in his bed today in the rectory of St. Gregory's Church at Boston's Lower Mills. Death was thought to be due to heart failure. He was eighty-one years old on November 21, last, and had been pastor of St. Gregory's since October 12, 1902.

The news of his death will come as a tremendous shock, not only to his parish but to hundreds of friends of his own faith and others through Greater Boston, who had been drawn to Father Fitzpatrick through admiration of his magnetic personality and of his manifold good work.

Father Fitzpatrick was born at East Town, Gloucester County, Nova Scotia, November 21, 1832. His father was of Irish descent. His mother, Jane Jarvin of Ayr, Scotland, was born next door to the residence of Robert Burns.

The boy came to America and worked as a mill hand in Hibernia, Boston and Boston and served up enough to put him self through Holy Cross College, Worcester, where he was graduated in 1862.

He was ordained to the priesthood of St. John, Montreal, and was ordained on May 26, 1865. His first parish was at St. John, Montreal, and was ordained on May 26, 1865. His first parish was at St. John, Montreal, and was ordained on May 26, 1865.

He promptly opened closed-up nostrils and air passages, stopped noisy discharge of nose, running, relieved sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

KILLS KIEV BOY IN VENGEANCE FOR YUSHINSKY

KIEV, Dec. 12.—The Jewish community here is stirred to the depths by the news of a murder committed in the suburban district where the Bella home is situated.

The motive of the crime undoubtedly is revenge on the part of the anti-Semites, who permit in believing that Yushinsky's murder was the work of Jews for ritual purposes.

The victim in this case is a Jewish boy by the name of Pashkow, the name given in Yushinsky. He was walking on a busy road, when suddenly he was seized by a peasant armed with a knife, who killed him almost before he had time to cry out.

Mulvaney Is Dead; 'Long Live Mulvaney'

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Ridgely Kipling, whom Irish Catholics described as a descendant of Blodder, Roosevelt, Johnson and Ben Davis, said today while the latter was his guest in England, that his pet character, "Mulvaney," one of the "Gulliver Tales," is dead.

Said Mr. Kipling: "He is dead—I think. I left him very weak, and I don't believe I shall ever see him again."

1,000 DEAD IN $500,000 FIRE AT COHOES, N.Y.

COHOES, N. Y., Dec. 12.—A fire of the worst fire ever known in Cohoes, 1,000 persons are killed and damage to the extent of over half a million dollars was done today.

The fire started shortly after midnight in the old Parsons mill, where the Central Knitting Co., Charles Wright Co. and the Leggett & Fayer Bros. Co. had their plants, and also destroyed the Harnisch, McLaughlin and Erie mills. Cohoes was burned.

Electric light, telephone and car service was crippled. Wires are down and it will be several days before repairs are completed.

QUICKLY STOPS WORST BACKACHE

Makes Kidney, Bladder Disorders and Rheumatic Pains Vanish.

If you suffer with backache, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders, or are tormented with rheumatism, stiff joints and heart-rending neuralgia, you will be surprised how quickly and surely Croxone will relieve all such misery.

It makes right in through the walls, membranes and linings, cleans out and strengthens all the clogged-up organs, neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys spit out all the acids, the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and all urinary organs clean, strong, active and healthy.

It matters not how long you have suffered; how old you are, or what you have tried. It is guaranteed possible to take Croxone without results, for it starts to work the minute you take it.

If you suffer with pain in the back or sides, if you are nervous, tired and run down; bothered with urinary disorders, or have any of the above ailments, bladder trouble or rheumatism, don't spend another medicine day suffering.

Secure an original package of Croxone today, and prove for yourself right now, as thousands of others have done, just how quickly it will end your misery.

Croxone is inexpensive, and every druggist is authorized to return the purchase price if it fails to give a single case.

COMMENT AND FACT ON TRADE AND FINANCE

By S. C. FORBES, Business Editor

(FROM A NEW ENGLAND WIDOW.)

I am only a poor, ignorant widow, living in the country and do not know anything about money matters. But a neighbor has just told me that the New Haven Railroad, which has all my money, is to stop paying interest on it. Tell me, Mr. Editor, that my neighbor is wrong.

I know it cannot be true, I CAN'T BE TRUE.

But I want to be reassured, for my neighbor knows more about these matters than I do and I feel worried.

Surely nothing of this kind would be done by the great, able, upright, wealthy men who own the New Haven Railroad. They would never stop paying me for the use of my money. The law would never allow that. I'm sure.

Why, Mr. Editor, I have not another penny in the whole world. My dividends on my shares are all I have to live on.

My husband, who knew a lot about financial affairs, always told me that once we had saved enough to buy a hundred shares of the great New Haven railroad, he could die happy in the knowledge that I would be well provided for during the rest of my life.

Well, Mr. Editor, we lived together for twenty years, and he died last week, and I am left alone and without a cent.

It makes right in through the walls, membranes and linings, cleans out and strengthens all the clogged-up organs, neutralizes, dissolves and makes the kidneys spit out all the acids, the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and all urinary organs clean, strong, active and healthy.

But, poor man, he did not live to enjoy the money he gave to me and said to me, "Mark, we can be happy and our money is where it is safe. If it were in the bank of England, it will pay us as well as here. I shall never rest until we can be so happy and comfortable as we are now."

But, poor man, he did not live to enjoy the money he gave to me and said to me, "Mark, we can be happy and our money is where it is safe. If it were in the bank of England, it will pay us as well as here. I shall never rest until we can be so happy and comfortable as we are now."

Now, Mr. Editor, did not I tell you that I was a widow? Did I not tell you that I was a widow? Did I not tell you that I was a widow?

My husband used to tell me that the greatest need in life was to have a good night's sleep. And that it was the greatest need in life to have a good night's sleep.

My husband used to tell me that the greatest need in life was to have a good night's sleep. And that it was the greatest need in life to have a good night's sleep.

German Ministry Fights Fair Exhibit

BERLIN, Dec. 12.—The proposal that the government appropriate money for an exhibit at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco, which had been agreed to by the budget committee yesterday, was withdrawn today instead of being put before the Reichstag. The debate on it had been planned as a record of opposition by members of the cabinet.

Shaw Blushes Over Philosopher's Kiss

LONDON, Dec. 12.—George Bernard Shaw was shocked at a meeting of the Fabian Society here, and actually had to blush. The occasion was when Anatole France, the French philosopher, clasped the playwright in his arms and whispered a little kiss on each cheek.

Would Raise Pay of Somerville Police

Recommendations increasing the salaries of officers and patrolmen of the Somerville Police Department and affecting the performance of duty were contained in orders offered to the Board of Aldermen, by President Douglas of the Somerville Finance Committee.

General Wood to Quit as Army Head

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Major-General Leonard Wood will cease to be chief of staff of the United States Army on April 22, 1914. On that date General Wood's "Ten Years' War" will expire, and Secretary Garrison will follow the spirit of the law and choose a successor.

Kearsarge Vets Call Woman 'Shipmate'

Miss Anna E. Barry of Test 56, Daughters of Veterans, is the first woman to be made a shipmate of the Kearsarge Naval Veterans, who were gathered at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the association, and presented badges for services she has rendered veterans in times past.

Money is safe with them. Everything from bread to butter is at their disposal. It is a comfort to know that these men have no more dream of climbing poor people like us.

Mr. Editor, the man who told me that I was a widow, did not live to enjoy the money he gave to me and said to me, "Mark, we can be happy and our money is where it is safe. If it were in the bank of England, it will pay us as well as here. I shall never rest until we can be so happy and comfortable as we are now."

Why don't the backache stop appearing on the knee?

Surely they are too Christians to let their money be so used. It is a herod and butler out of our mouths and drive to starvation.

Not! Not! It cannot be true. It must be true.

What could I do? What would happen to the life of me if I lost the money? But I CAN'T be true. Won't you please write and tell me that it is a wicked story, made up to frighten poor, ignorant people like myself.

The President of the United States would never allow such a thing to be done. The law would never allow it, and then think that I am a miser. I would get a steady income on it and then think that I am a miser. I would get a steady income on it and then think that I am a miser.

Waltham Election Heads Held in Test

Charged with violation of election laws, Patrick J. Dowd, chairman of the Board of Assessors; City Clerk L. N. Hall; Thomas F. Keeney, chairman of the Board of Registrars; and Theodore E. Whitcomb and E. B. Daley, election judges, were summoned to appear in the Waltham Court today on complaint of A. J. Corcoran, Progressive candidate for Alderman. The case arose out of a challenge vote.

Mormons on Arabic with English Girl

The White Star liner, Arabic, arriving here today from Liverpool, brought home Miss Mervin Mervin, daughter of the late Mervin Mervin, who accompanied them. When asked if she believed in polygamy, she replied: "I can't have a whole man, I don't want any part of one." Five-year-old Florence Mervin Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Young of No. 42 East Third street, South Boston, was the youngest unaccompanied passenger.

"Like Squirrel Trap." "As for the bear pit," said Knowles, "the earth is there and the stones are there. The sheep and goats are there. A boy can know that with his hands, and if he takes them out and digs deeper and deeper till he gets what he wants, (knowles said he had this in his eye.) It is as easy to do a thing like this that is almost to fail it."

"With the hole dug—a cover came out. It made it like a bear trap to catch a squirrel, so a large mouse would fall and catch the bear. There was plenty of hole timber for this. I could easily dig a hole."

"What I do to do away with the world. A boy can do it with his hands. Why, if you kill a bear and eat it every night, another bear, if there are any in the neighborhood, will go to it every night."

"(Knowles left his bear over night for skinning, and he said that nearly all of bears in the world are killed a deer, and a bear drags it half a mile—and then he hangs the skin and horns on the limb of a tree.)"

"Room for More Bears." "The dirt from the hole—needed it. Nothing I touched went to waste. That is the way to do it. The little animal wastes nothing. The stone is the same. I used the dirt and stone along the side of the pit, and put some on the cover—put a hole in it."

"I heard the trap with a bit of hair in the ear. Wild animals have it all over the animal. It is a sign of life. I am not attacking. I am just the privilege of being asleep in the night. I am not attacking. I am just the privilege of being asleep in the night. I am not attacking. I am just the privilege of being asleep in the night."

Experts Challenge Knowles to Exhibit That Bear Skin

Joe Knowles said in his paid advertisement in Thursday's newspaper that his famous bear skin would be present at last night's lecture. The bear skin was not visible in the morning picture. No opportunity was given to ask for an examination of this skin, which Knowles wears during his first public appearance in Boston.

For experts and woodmen now in Boston desire an opportunity to examine this skin. If it is the skin of the bear which Knowles said he had in his house for some time, it is a skin of a bear, and it is a skin of a bear.

JOE KNOWLES TO PRODUCE THIS BEAR SKIN for an examination in the presence of Knowles and his friends. If Knowles is telling the truth, he has nothing to fear.

It is up to you to produce the bear skin. Mr. Knowles. You may notify the experts through the AMERICAN of the time and place you will exhibit the bear skin.
